

Adventure Experience

This program is designed to enhance the experience of older youth in Scouting.

Day one: Stand up Paddleboard program on Cape Horn Lake.

This program will consist of an afternoon of participation and experimentation on paddleboard on a pristine high Alpine Lake. This program is free form and will depend on the needs and desires of the group. Camp staff lifeguards will be in attendance and leaders are encouraged to participate. All participants will be required to pass the Scouting America Swim check at the Swimmer Level.

Day Two: White Water trip.

This program will consist of a White-Water float trip down one of the many rivers around the Bradley Scout Reservation. Professional outfitters will guide and monitor this adventure. Leaders may be required to help with transport due to group size. Leaders will be encouraged to participate as well. Helmets and life jackets will be provided. All participants will be required to pass the Scouting America Swim check at the Swimmer Level.

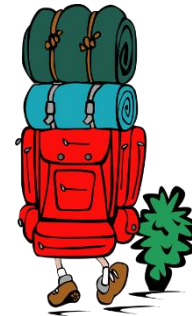

Day Three: Outpost/Trek

This program will consist of an overnight backpack trip on one of a myriad of trails in the Frank Church River of No Return Wilderness Area. Leaders will be required to maintain two deep leadership and proper ratios according to Safeguarding Youth Guidelines. Camp will provide a Trek Certified “Ranger” to go along with the crew. Some leader transport assistance may be required. Participants will need to bring their own backpack and gear for an overnight adventure.

Day Four: Outpost/Trek Return.

Participants will return to the Bradley Scout Reservation as scheduled following their overnight outpost.

Day Five: Climb On

This program will consist of an afternoon of climbing and training on the new Climbing Tower at the Bradley Scout Reservation. This will include climbing and repelling. Reservation Staff will be on hand to supervise the participants, but leaders are again encouraged to participate.

Apart from Night three, the youth in this program will be in the campsite with the troop for each night’s activities.
