

What Commissioner Stewardship Teams Do

- The Commissioner Stewardship Teams are the single best resource who help units thrive.
- They are Scouting experts who freely share their knowledge and are a welcome and helpful friend.
- They work together and always share best practices, resources, and useful information with each other and the units they serve.

3 + 1

Unit Performance Excellence

